

Reflection Questions for the Third Week of Advent

Instructions: Reflect on one of the following questions. Note your response. If you want, share your written or verbal response with another person.

- List a number of people who have positively influenced you or whom you consider heroes. What traits do the people you chose have in common?
Feel free to include historical or fictional characters.
- Choose three favorite books, movies, podcasts, or songs. Reflect on why they are important to you.
- List your closest relationships and briefly note the condition of each. Is there need for growth or change in these relationships?
- What social problem do you think most needs to be solved or healed? Do you see yourself as part of the solution or healing?
